The three interior angles of a triangle always add up to 180° .

Example 1:

$$45^\circ + 45^\circ + 90^\circ = 180^\circ$$

The little square in the corner indicates a 90° angle.

$$30^\circ + 60^\circ + 90^\circ = 180^\circ$$

$$60^\circ + 60^\circ + 60^\circ = 180^\circ$$

Example 2: Find the missing angle in the triangle.

Solution:

$$\begin{array}{rcl} 20^\circ + 125^\circ + x & = & 180^\circ \\ -20^\circ - 125^\circ & & -20^\circ - 125^\circ \\ \hline x & = & 180^\circ - 20^\circ - 125^\circ \\ x & = & 35^\circ \end{array}$$

Subtract 20° and 125° from both sides to get x by itself.

The missing angle is 35°

The Printing Press

Before William Caxton set up the first printing press in England in 1476, the only writing available to literate people was handwritten. Books, mostly religious in nature, were labor-intensive and time-consuming products. These coveted manuscripts were relatively few in number. They were accessible to only the educated classes, which made up a small segment of society. Only the nobility and the clergy were literate. All other members of society belonged to the class of laborers, who were generally uneducated and known as “commoners.” However, a new merchant class was beginning to emerge in Europe—men who had a basic degree of education as well as some expendable cash.

Lacy sat down at the kitchen table. She picked up the cheeseburger and took a bite. Lacy's dog, Boomer, sat under the table making a whimpering sound. Just then, the phone rang. Lacy got up and went to answer the phone.

Lacy's mother was on the phone. She wanted to talk about Thanksgiving plans. Lacy began walking around the house while she was on the phone. She did not see Boomer jump up on the chair. Boomer looked around to see if Lacy was watching him. She wasn't. Boomer grabbed the cheeseburger and enjoyed his tasty treat. He finished the cheeseburger and went back under the table.

Just then, Lacy walked back into the kitchen and sat down at the table. All that was left of her cheeseburger were a few crumbs of bread. Lacy looked under the table. Boomer had a little bit of cheese on his mouth. Lacy frowned and said, "Boomer, you are in so much trouble."
